Cooke School Mission

Cooke envisions a world in which all people with special needs are included as valued members of their communities, leading independent and purposeful lives.

When so much is subject to change, we must find an anchor. For us, that anchor is our student body and the Cooke community.

We know that things in the world have changed. What we can hold on to are those things that haven't changed—our ties to family and friends, our core values and our belief in the unique specialness of every individual.

Do you remember looking up at the sky as a kid and wondering if a star was following you home? We get older and realize that the star is there for everyone, and while it doesn't follow our every move, it's still there to inspire us and orient us to our place in the world.
